MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS.
SAFE AND RELIABLE.

That the roots of many native plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well proven. Even the untutored Indian had learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked work so he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible that she might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore, he dug "papoose root" for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses. Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine in curing all the various weaknesses and painful derangements peculiar to women.

Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower pelvic region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing-down pains or distress should not go unheeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvelous benefit in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time. The "Favorite Prescription" is a harmless agent, being wholly prepared from native medicinal roots, without a drop of alcohol in its make up, whereas all other medicines, put up for sale through druggists for woman's peculiar ailments, contain large quantities of spirituous liquors, which are very harmful, especially to delicate women. "Favorite Prescription" contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on each bottle wrapper. It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For weak and sickly women, who are "worn-out," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office, or school-room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.

BETTER RAILROAD FACILITIES.

As heretofore stated in the Gazette the State Corporation Commission has entered a sweeping order against the Southern Railway Company, requiring that corporation to make certain improvement in facilities for handling passengers on its Bluemont and Manassas branches. Here is the order in full.

"The commission having given careful consideration to all the testimony and exhibits in this proceeding, and without at this time disposing of all matters brought before it herein, or directing all such requirements as it may conclude should be made herein, proceeds now to enter the following order with reference to the complaints concerning the condition, the services and the facilities on the line of the defendant company, from the Potomac river to Bluemont, known as its Bluemont branch.

The Southern Railway Company is required to note, and observe the following detailed particulars, and carry out the matters therein appearing with all practicable promptness and dispatch; that is to say, the Southern Railroad Company, on its Bluemont branch, in order to render its facilities and the service furnished by it to the public more efficient and satisfactory, should observe the following rules, now briefly stated, and comply with the following orders and directions, viz:

1. Clean and comfortable coaches; these coaches to be well cleaned in detail at each end of each run.

2. Sufficient passenger coaches on each train to meet the varying requirements of the travel on this branch, and to furnish seats for all passengers.

3. Such motive power as will handle trains above described and maintain their schedules as advertised, subject to the restrictions set out in paragraph No. 6.

4. The railway company may operate these passenger trains in either one or two sections, according to the number of coaches which may be required to furnish comfortable and adequate accommodations for their patrons.

5. The floor beams of Tuscarora creek bridge must be replaced by stronger ones of built section of suitable design, and the stringers on same bridge be replaced by twenty-inch by fifty-five-pound I beams, or equivalent.

6 No engine, whether drawing passenger or freight train, shall be allowed to double-head over any portion of this branch when the weight on any one pair of driving wheels exceeds the following:

Eight-wheeled (American type) 36,000 pounds.

Ten-wheeled type (three pairs drivers), 30,000 pounds.

Consolidated type (four pairs drivers), 38,500 pounds.

7. Road to be ballasted from Round Hill to Bluemont, at least up to the condition of the rest of the branch.

8. Station grounds immediately surrounding the station building at Bluemont to be properly drained and filled in, so as to make the approach to the station for vehicles and foot passengers comfortable and satisfactory.

9. The railway company shall furnish the commission, at the end of each week, until further orders, train sheets, showing arrival and departure of each scheduled passenger train at and from Bluemont and Washington and Ohio Junction.

Such additional orders, rules and requirements will be further entered by the commission as may be, in its judgment, justified by the evidence herein and be rendered necessary to meet the public requirements and needs.

It is ordered that the clerk of the commission do transmit and certify a copy hereof to the Southern Railway Company.

Sensational Charges.

Senator Albert M. Mills summed up the case of Chester Gillette at Herkimer, N. Y., yesterday, and, when he came to practically the only thing which his shrewd mind could not explain away, the autopsy, and testimony of the physicians as to the bruises on Grace Brown's body, he made most sensational charges of graft against the five physicians who had testified in behalf of the State, and intimated that the reason for their testimony was their connection with a political ring.

"I say here and charge it boldly," he said, after he had gone over the medical testimony, "that that post-mortem examination, however it was conducted, is not brought here in a fair and truthful manner; that these doctors are called regularly in cases of this kind. If the graft which exists in this country is ever investigated some doctors will figure in the investigation. I charge now that every one of these doctors gets big fees for what they have brought here; that all the facts have not been included in these reports, and that facts which might have tended to help this boy have been boldly left out. I know that this is a serious charge, but until some higher power makes me change my mind I will not retract it."

When Senator Mills had finished and had sat down after more than five hours and a half of almost continuous talk District Attorney Ward arose to start his summing up and began with a reply to Senator Mills' charges, which was even more bitter than the charges themselves, and resented what he called Senator Mills' denunciation of the doctors as bunglers. Ward trembled with indignation. He was apparently so angry at the insinuations which had been made against his integrity and that of five medical experts that he could hardly control himself. He had not closed when court adjourned.

Following The Flag.

When our soldiers went to Cuba and the Philippines, health was the most important consideration. Willis T. Morgan, retired Commissary Sergeant U. S. A., of Rural Route 1, Concord, N. H., says: "I was two years in Cuba and two years in the Philippines, and being subject to colds, I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which kept me in perfect health. And now, in New Hampshire, we find it the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds, bronchial troubles and all lung diseases." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Catarrh of the nose and throat should lead you to at least ask us for a free trial box of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. Nothing so surely proves merit as a real, actual test—and Dr. Shoop, to prove this, earnestly desires that we let you make that test. Japanese in Honolulu.

Those in Honolulu who have been watching the Japanese immigration for sometime declare that that the immigrants who have arrived there during the last few months are picked men of military training and experience during the last war. The same is true of those who will arrive there within the next few months.

The Japanese on the islands now outnumber all other foreigners, and most of them are in Honolulu or on the big sugar plantations. They could be massed very easily, and if provided with arms would make a formidable army, especially with the presence of Japanese war vessels in Honolulu harbor.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 4, 1906.

THE MESSAGE of President Roosevelt was sent to Congress this afternoon. It comprises a sixty-page pamphlet, and contains most of the usual observations of a President's message. The document is conservative, practical and manifests the fruit of considerable thought. On the leading issues now before the country and on which many persons are divided, the language of the President is guarded and his recommendations are of a nature to insure safety. He begins his message by alluding to the continued prosperity of the country, following in the trend of the usual conventionalities. He urges the enactment of laws to prevent corporations from contributing to campaign funds, shows the necessity of the government's right to appeal in criminal cases, manifests disapprobation at the action of appellate courts in setting aside the decisions of inferior tribunals on technicalities in criminal cases, upholds injunction and deplores the epidemic of lynching. His excellency devotes considerable space to capital and labor and the investigation of disputes arising between the two classes, although he substantially reiterates what he has said under these heads on former occasions. He also commends the shortening of railroad employees' hours, upholds the eight-hour law, refers to the labor of women and children, has much to say on former lines on corporations, favors a graduated inheritance and income tax, and the construction of a memorial amphitheatre at Arlington. He makes recommendations concerning currency reform, urges the improvement of American shipping conditions, asks lower tariff for the Philippines, and suggests certain legislation for the betterment of affairs in Porto Rico, Hawaii and Alaska. The President devotes a large portion of the latter part of his message to international morality, and incidentally to relations between the United States and Japan. He recommends the naturalization of Japanese when they take up their residence in this country, as is done with persons from other countries. In alluding to the recent friction between the United States and the Mikado he says:

There should be no particle of doubt of the national government completely to perform and enforce its own obligations to other nations. The mob of a single city may at any time perform acts of lawless violence against some class of foreigners which would plunge us into war. That city by itself would be powerless to make defense against the foreign power thus assaulted, and if independent of this government it would never venture to perform or permit the performance of the acts complained of. The entire power and the whole duty to protect the offending community lies in the hands of the United States government. It is unthinkable that we should continue a policy under which a given locality may be allowed to commit a crime against a friendly nation, and the United States government limited, not to preventing the commission of the crime, but, in the last resort, to defending the people who have committed it against the consequences of their own wrongdoing.

The message closes with references to Cuban and South American affairs, and with expressions of a desire for peace, but with the recommendations that the country be prepared at all times with a suitable army and navy to be used in national defense.

THE ECHOES of the recent terrible accident on the Southern Railway in which President Spencer and six other persons were killed are still heard. The blame is laid by some on the operator at Rangoon, by others on the man in the telegraph tower at Lawyers, while some allege that the flagman on train 33 could have prevented the catastrophe had he ran back and placed torpedoes on the track to warn train 37. It is better to suspend judgment until the result of the investigation to be made by the railroad company is given out. A dispatch from Lynchburg states that there is considerable sympathy manifested for Operator Mattoax, who was in charge at Rangoon, who, many people think is responsible for the wreck. Among the suggestions made in extermination of his terrible mistake is the allegation that certain operators receive but meagre salaries. No one will say that persons placed in such responsible positions with long hours of service should not be well paid, but how this can in anyway affect the case is hard to understand. The man who proves himself irresponsible at wages he regards as unsatisfactory is liable to be remiss were he a high-salaried official. There is a lesson here for all. Successful railroading depends upon every man doing his duty, and the humble and poorly-paid trackwalker who is in the wee sma' hours inspecting the condition of rails and bridges, thereby protecting sleeping passengers, would prove himself to be deficient in responsibility and manhood should he neglect his duty because he was dissatisfied with his pay. Such excuses will not stand.

WORK has been started on the new macadamized road that is to be built from Williamsburg to Jamestown. Fifty convicts from the State penitentiary are at work on the road and they could be put to no better use.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Dec. 4.

President Roosevelt stirred up a hornets nest among the California members of the House by his attitude on the Japanese question as expressed in his message today. 'Its fierce," declared Representative McLachlan, of Los Angeles. "Tomorrow morning the entire Pacific coast will be ablaze with indignation." "His recommendation that the Japanese be naturalized," said Representative Kahn, will be fought by the entire west. Representative Knowland declared that "It is a good thing for California congressman that President Roosevelt's message did not come before the election.".

The Smoot case will have the boards in the Senate beginning next Monday when Senator Burrows, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, will call up the resolution reported by a majority of the committee declaring that Smoot is not entitled to his seat in the Senate. Mr. Burrows will make a set speech in favor of the committee resolution, and will be followed by Senator Dubois, of Idaho. Smoot's right to his seat will be defended by Senators Foraker, of Ohio, and Sutherland, of Utah. The debate will probably consume considerable time and no decision is expected until after the Christmas holidays.

That President Roosevelt will secure his inheritance tax law and have it affirmed by the U. S. Supreme Court before he quits office was the prediction made by Congressman Champ Clark this morning after he had had a talk with the Executive. "The President will have the appointment of three members of the Supreme Court before he quits office" said Mr. Clark, "and you can bet that all his appointees will find the inheritance tax law good law."

A motion was made in the Supreme court of the United States today that the record in the case of Lord Barrington, under sentence to be hanged in Missouri, be printed at public expense. Barrington declared that he is a "pauper."

Briefs have been filed in the U. S Supreme Court in which are considered the legal questions in connection with the Chattanooga contempt cases, arising from the lynching of Ed. Johnson, a negro who had been given a stay of execution by the court. Oral arguments will be made late this afternoon or tomorrow. Judge Harmon, attorney for Sheriff Shipp, accused of failing to protect Johnson from the lynchers, raises the question in his brief of the jurisdiction of the federal courts to consider the appeal from the State courts. The Department of Justice replies that the United States courts are empowered to take a case although they may not retain it. It is argued that the Supreme Court of the United States has the right to take the case for the purpose of determining the question of jurisdiction.

President Roosevelt told Senator Hopkins this morning that he hopes that either Senator Penrose's or Senator Foraker's resolution on the subject of the discharge of the colored battalion would be adopted without delay. He has all the papers in the case ready and will send them to the Senate promptly. The President feels confident that his course will be upheld by the lawmakers.

The Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution this morning elected Professor Henry Fairfield Osborn, first vice president of the American Museum of National History of New York, Secretary to succeed Professor Langley who died several months ago. It is not definitely known whether Professor Osborn will accept the position which pays $6,000 a year.

The former president of the road earned thousands in fees and salaries, but left no will, and the property was divided between several relatives. The entire estate was wiped out by the railroad man's obligations. Miss Sara Cambellii a Cowen, daughter of the widow, was one of the debutantes at the Monday German last night.

Reprint, News-Herald: "There is at least one effectual, safe, and reliable Cough Cure—Dr. Shoop's—that we regard as suitable, even for the youngest child. For years, Dr. Shoop bitterly opposed the use of opiates or narcotics in medicine, offering $10 per drop to any one finding Opium, Chloroform, or any other poisonous or narcotic ingredient in Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And the challenge is as yet unanswered. Here is one manufacturing physician, who welcomed with much satisfaction, the new Government Pure Food and Drug Law. The public can now protect itself at all times, by insisting on having Dr. Shoop's, when a cough remedy is needed." Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

SAYS MATTOAX IS RESPONSIBLE.

"The report that I am to blame for last week's wreck on the Southern Railway, in which President Spencer and six members of his party were killed, is an absolute lie," declared Operator Jacobs, who was in charge of the tower at Lawyers, and whom Operator Mattoax said "cleared the block" for the train which crashed into President Spencer's car.

"My telegraph sheet shows absolutely just what happened," continued Jacobs, "and they show that I had no information from Mattoax that he had passed both trains 33 and 37.

"As a matter of fact, Mattoax condemns himself. He declares that he reported No. 37, and asked me what I had done with No. 33, and then says I did not answer his signal. As a matter of fact, everybody knows that it is an imperative rule under the block system in railroading that all operators shall sign for orders indicative that they have received them. I will be in Washington, when the investigation is continued, and will show that I had nothing to do with the wreck at all."

Mattoax is still at his home. It is openly asserted that he had not had any great experience as a tower telegrapher. Then, again, railroad men urge that had the flagman of 33 gone back as soon as his train stopped he could have caught No. 37 in time to have prevented the crash.

Mattoax was notified yesterday by W. S. Andrews, superintendent of the Danville division of the Southern, to be present at the investigation in Washington on Wednesday.

The hearing to determine officially the cause of the wreck on the Southern Railway last Thursday will begin tomorrow in Washington. Operator G. T. Mattoax, who has been held responsible for the disaster, will be present, as will the operator at Lawyers. General Manager C. H. Ackert will conduct the investigation, assisted by General Superintendent E. H. Copeman, of the Danville division, in which the wreck occurred. The hearings will be conducted in the general manager's office, and a force of stenographers will take the testimony. All employes of the Southern who had anything to do with the handling of the two trains have been ordered to be in Washington tomorrow morning and report promptly at the Southern Railway building, 1300 Pennsylvania avenue. Some of the employes arrived yesterday.

Today's Telegraphic News

California Bellicose.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—A despatch from a staff correspondent of the Chicago Tribune at San Francisco says: "California is rebellious if not in a state of rebellion. It wants no war with the rest of the United States but demands 'a friendly fight' in the supreme court to decide whether or not California shall have to fight to rule itself in local matters and handle the color question in its way. Neither does California seek a war with Japan 'The school board of San Francisco will never change its attitude on the school question,' declared the superintendent of schools as I came from the board meeting. 'If California is to remain one of United States,' declared the commissioner of labor for California, 'it must stop this invasion and settle the question. If we do not settle it or try to settle it, it will be settled from the other side of the 'Sierras.' The Japanese are swarming into California at the rate of over a thousand a month, more arrogant, more cheaty than any other people. They do not demand equality. They want an acknowledgment of their superiority. Nobody in California is afraid of the Japanese, or of war with Japan. Roosevelt appears to be afraid of war, but there are thousands of Californians who would welcome it. The feeling in San Francisco is high. The city and parts of the State are openly, bitterly and resentfully opposed to the administration's stand in regard to the school question. Its educators, its officials, its politicians declare that Japan is not at all interested in the question of the ninety-three segregated but that the Japanese are seeking to find a cause for a quarrel with the United States and have chosen the San Francisco school situation as the bone over which to pick a quarrel and start a war. It is openly stated that the Japanese believe that the quicker he strikes at America the better and that he is seeking over a trivial question, which the school board declares was the result not of any slight to Japan, nor of any insults, intended or otherwise, either to Japan or China, but as a direct result of the necessity arising from the earthquake and fire which destroyed the city, to start a war to decide quickly which nation shall be the master of the Pacific.

Gillette's Ordeal.

Herkimer, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Chester Gillette faces the full fire of the State's case today when District Attorney Ward sums up the evidence which he believes will convict the Cortland young man of the murder of Grace Brown.

Unnerved and nervous for fear that some harm may come to him from threatening crowds which storm the door of the court house and by the weight of evidence against him, Gillette presented a picture of abject wretchedness in court today. The public prosecutor will spend the entire day massing the evidence against Gillette in powerful argument, and it will be nightfall before the jury finds its verdict. Even money is offered that Gillette will not go to the electric chair.

Herkimer is little more than an armed camp today. The local police and numerous deputy sheriffs who were sworn in early in the trial have been reinforced by detectives and officers from Utica and near by towns, while the Thirty-first separate company of Herkimer is ready to be rushed to the court house should there be an outbreak against the prisoner or the jury, should they acquit Gillette. There is no disorder in Herkimer. It seems to be that peculiar quiet that precedes a storm or outbreak. The old mountaineers and woodsmen who have come down from the Adirondacks move quietly about and mingle with the determined people of the town, who say with uncommon emphasis that there won't be any second trial. No one talks of lynching openly, and Sheriff Richards says there is not the slighest danger of any trouble. Nevertheless District Attorney Ward is keeping the Herkimer militia under orders and every person that is available is being sworn in as a deputy sheriff.

Gillette wept frequently during the prosecutors' address and sat with his head sunk in his hands. He passed his handkerchief across his eyes to brush the tears away. It was the first time that Gillette had wept in open court.

Court attendants fear that he may collapse before the trial is over.

Double Execution.

Valdoosta, Ga., Dec. 4.—Rev. G. Rawlings and Alf. Moore, a negro, jointly convicted with him for the murder of the children of a rival minister, were hanged here today. J. G. Rawlings, who was formerly a Methodist minister, was hanged on the charge of planning the murder of two children, named Carter two years ago. W. L. Carter father of the children, is also an ex-Methodist preacher, and the two men labored side by side at revival meeting in this State for many year.

On the night of the murder the three Rawlings boys, accompanied by Moore, a negro, went to the Carter homestead for the purpose of exterminating the entire family, it is claimed.

Carrie Carter and her brother Willie, 14 and 16 years old respectively, were killed on their doorstep while Carter barricaded his home and fought off the besiegers who sought to set it on fire, until daylight drove them away.

Rawlings, his three sons, and Moore, were arrested and charged with the crime. The negro turned States evidence. All the time the elder Rawlings has insisted on being executed. He admitted that he had hired Moore to commit the crime. An effort is being made to secure a new trial for the two sons, who have been sentenced to death.

Rawlings and Moore both died bravely neither changing their former statements to any great degrees in their death statements. Jesse and Milton Rawlings are sentenced to be hanged next Friday. Leonard, another son, is serving a life sentence.

Says Christ would Abolish Christmas.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—"One of the first things Christ would abolish were he to come to earth, would be the holiday Christmas," declared Dr. Boynton last night at a ministers's meeting. Christmas, he declared, has become a burden too great to be borne. He cited the extra work imposed upon clerks in stores, and called attention to the pain the holiday causes persons who are unable to reciprocate for presents given them. "Christmas as it observed among us has reverted to paganism," was Dr. Boynton's final shot.

Lone Bandit on Train.

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 4.—A lone bandit attempted to hold up a westbound Santa Fe train out of Kansas City last night, after having ridden on the train from that city. When he ordered the passengers to hold up their hands B. E. Wood, a passenger, jumped through the car window. Charles Ward, of Purcell, I. T., attacked the bandit from behind, and grappled with him. The bandit turned upon Ward and shot him through the leg, breaking the bone. This happened at a station. In the confusion following the shot, the bandit escaped. The train proceeded and after a few minutes it was found that the man was still aboard. Arising from his seat in the smoking car, he ordered the passengers to throw up their hands. They obeyed with the exception of a cowboy who showed fight. The bandit fired one shot, pulled the bell cord and ran to the front platform. As the train slowed down he jumped just in time to escape a bullet from the cowboy's gun. Nothing of value was obtained by the robber. He got the suit case of Ward, the wounded man, in the first attempt, but was forced to leave it when he jumped.

Boy Killed two Men.

New York, Dec. 4.—With two deaths charged to his account, one of the youngest slayers New York has in many days, was arraigned in police court today. John Naporano is the young slayer and his victims were Francis Daniarco and Diarato Bottilli. The scene of the shooting was the saloon owned by the boy's father. Trying to play peacemaker in a quarrel between two of the patrons of the saloon, brought Naporano to his present predicament. The two Italians quarrelled and Naporano separted them. Bottilli held a revolver in his hand, but he never used it. Naporano was to quick for him. Before Botilli could fire there was a shot and the Italian fell dead. Daniarco, behind him, got the next bullet, and died shortly.

McGovern Crazed.

New York, Dec. 4.—Terry McGovern, former feather-weight champion of the United States and whose sanity has been in dispute several times, became suddenly crazed in the neighborhood of his home in South Brooklyn today. McGovern was watched by a policeman who saw him kick over ash barrels and he was arrested screaming at the top of his voice. When taken up McGovern had a big loaded shell in his possession. As he was in Washington yesterday and visited the navy yard there it is presumed that he got the shell there. McGovern is now in the Flatbush Hospital.

Narrow Escape of King Carlos.

Lisbon, Portugal, Dec 4.—King Carlos I. and the crown prince of Portugal, while engaged in a boar hunt today near Arronchesa had a narrow escape from death when a herd of wild boars charged the hunting party. The hunters fled. Carlos' horse fell and was killed. The king, however, escaped uninjured. Only the speed of the crown prince's horse enabled him to out distance the frantic boars. A squadron of cavalry which came to the king's rescue finally scattered the boars. Count Demolina and the Marquis de Ferrera were badly hurt and three beaters were killed.

Dr. Crapsey Officially Deposed.

Buffalo, Dec. 4.—The Rev. Dr. Algernon S. Crapsey, former rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Rochester and convicted of heresy by the ecclesiastical court, was officially deposed by Bishop Walker in St. John's Chapel in this city today.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Dec. 4.—The stock market opened almost generally higher. The Vanderbilt stocks were the prominent strong features of the trading of the first hour. Price movements in the general list were irregular and without much improvement.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Dec. 4.

SENATE.

The President's message was laid before the Senate today just ten minutes after the opening. The intervening time had been devoted to a reading of the minutes, receiving messages from the House of Representatives; making announcement, among other things that a quorum was present and hearing from the committee appointed to wait upon the President that the Chief Executive "would forthwith send a message.

The message was one of the most bulky ever sent to Congress.

Printed copies were at once placed on the Senators desk, by the pages. There was a large attendance upon the floor, and the reading of the document by the clerk was closely followed by a majority of the senators.

Mr. Tillman left the chamber before the reading began. His Southern colleagues, however, gave their undivided attention to the treatment of the race question and the denunciation of mob law, which was emphasized in importance by being the fourth topic discussed.

Senator Rayner regards the President's attitude on the Japanese school controversy in California, as absolutely indispensible and his threat of using force against the State as "outrageous" and "startling to the imagination." This afternoon he asked the Senate to adopt a resolution directing the President to notify all the world, Japan included, that the States have exclusive rights over their own schools.

Senator Rayner's resolution was laid on the table.

The resolutions in reference to the discharge of negro troops went over.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.

Practically a full membership was on hand when the House received the President's message today. Representative Payne, informed the House that his committee had notified the President that Congress "awaited instructions" and that the President had "promised" a message on what to do.

The House then recessed for fifteen minutes, the Presidential messenger not having appeared. Finally Assistant Secretary Latta came in the main doorway and delivered the document.

During the reading by the clerk, many members retired to the cloak rooms and lobbies. As the reading progressed visitors in the galleries got tired and left, only a score remaining to the end.

Immediately after the reading of the message the House adjourned.

Speaker Cannon announced to the House the appointment of Representatives Cousins, (republican) Iowa, as chairman of the committee on foreign affairs to succeed the late Representative Hitt, of Illinois and Representative Lowden, (republican), Illinois, a member of that committee,

EXCITEMENT IN MADRID.

Madrid is in excitement over the political crisis.

Noisy groups, carrying red banners, gathered yesterday evening in the neighborhood of the Senate and Chamber, and shouted threateningly.

The police scattered the crowd, arresting several persons, but the mob reassembled, and their numbers are constantly increasing. There is every indication that trouble is brewing.

As the evening advanced the crowds focused in the Puerta del Sol, outside the ministry of the interior. Many well-known agitators are moving busily among the people, and there is much angry talking.

The situation is not easy to explain, but in addition to the popular feeling aroused by the Moroccan and church questions, there is strong antagonism among the various liberal factions. The personal animosity of the liberal leaders prevent their party from uniting to govern. Senor Moret's action in forcing the resignation of the Domingues ministry last week, embittered popular as well as political feeling. His momentary success has now ended in his own resignation after the briefest term of office on record even in Spain, where cabinet crises are more frequent than anywhere in Europe. His retirement, resulted directly from the action taken earlier in the day by Senor Montero Rios, president of the Senate. Senor Montero Rios objected to the terms of a motion submitted to the Senate, censuring those responsible for last week's cabinet crisis, and he resigned.

Thereupon Senor Moret declared that it was impossible for him to continue in office, and he went to the palace and told the King that he must resign. His majesty acquiesced, but being anxious to have a liberal government, his sympathies being with the democracy, he asked Senor Montero Rios to try to harmonize the troubles, in which he failed.

The proceeds of the supper go to the marker fund to enable the organization to place a stone to mark the resting place of our Confederate dead, a most worthy cause and one that should appeal to all.

Will Write to the Librarian.

A few days ago ex-Chief Webster of the police force received a letter from a neighboring city asking information of a man named Boswell who was a soldier in the continental army. The ex-chief has recalled to mind all his old comrades during revolutionary days, and is confident no man bearing the name of Boswell was in the regiment he served. The ex-chief will communicate with the State Librarian from whom he hopes to obtain the desired information.

Cold Wave.

The comparatively mild weather of yesterday was followed by a borean gale and colder conditions at the close of the day. The wind had previously been blowing from the southwest. It suddenly veered to the northwest and by dark was traveling at a 35-mile galt. At 8 o'clock the mercury in the thermometer had fallen to 36°. The wind blew steadily throughout most of the night, and at 7 o'clock this morning the mercury stood at 24°.

A. L. I.

At the regular meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry last night voting for a second lieutenant took place. The candidates were Richard C. Talbot and Carroll H. May. Neither was elected, as it requires 26 votes to elect. The balloting was as follows: First, Talbot, 22; May, 7; second, Talbot, 21; May, 8; third, Talbot, 23; May, 6; fourth, Talbot, 23; May, 6. There will be voting again for the candidates next Monday night.

Confederate Veterans.

At the regular meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, held at their hall last night, the following committee was appointed to make all necessary arrangements for the observation of General R. E. Lee's birthday, January 19th next: Thos. Perry, chairman; Edgar Warfield, G. W. Ramsay, P. F. Gorman, F. J. Davidson and R. M. Latham. To procure speakers, Chas. S. Taylor.

Malrboro Fishing Shore, on the Potomac river, in Stafford, owned by Berrey and Morton, was sold at public auction Thursday to W. A. Faunce, of Fairfax county, who is engaged in business in Washington, for the sum of $2,210. The sale was confirmed by court Saturday.

If "taken at the Sneeze Stage" Preventics—a toothsome candy tablet—will surely and quickly check an approaching cold or La-grippe. When you first catch cold—or feel it coming on—take Dr. Shoop's Preventics, and the prompt effect will certainly surprise and please you. Preventics, surely supply the proverbial "ounce of prevention." Sold in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Alexandria Athletic Association

There was a largely attended meeting last night of the Young Men's Athletic Club at Schuler's Hall, which has been leased by this club for the promotion of all kinds of athletic sports. Considerable business was transacted. The name of the club was changed from the Young Men's Athletic Club to that of the Alexandria Athletic Association, and the following officers were installed for one year: Ervin G. Schwarzman, president; Robt. Tomlin, vice-president; Ramon O. Reeves, secretary; Bernard B. Cline, treasurer. This club is increasing in popularity and every day new applications for membership are made. Basketball, dancing and amateur contests with nearby clubs will be the attraction for the winter. This club deserves encouragement, as it is the first of its kind since the closing of the Young Men's Christian Association. It's headquarters are always open for public inspection, and every courtesy will be shown all who attend the contests. The ladies are cordially invited to attend.

The Belasco Theater.

A large audience was attracted to the Belasco Theater in Washington last night to see Mr. John E Kellerd and a strong company in "Taps," a tragedy of German militarism, which was written by Adam Beyerlein. The story deals with conditions somewhat strange to the American mind; yet it is fundamentally one of simplicity and directness. It is the old tale of the non-commissioned against the commissioned officer—the inevitable internal strife of military despotism. Sergeant Volkhardt, the proud wearer of the Iron Cross, has a pretty daughter, who, instead of wedding the non-commissioned officer her father has picked out for her, loves above her station, and falls a victim to her father's superior, Lieut. von Laufen. In the last act the sergeant goes to the quarters of his daughter's betrayer and begs him to forget the difference in rank and fight a duel. The lieutenant refuses, and [illegible] Klarchen turns to her lover, the old [illegible] killed by an overwhelming burden, [illegible] places a pistol to his side, and folds his arm[illegible] admirable as the old serdies. Mr. Kellerd [illegible] touch to his ingeant, giving just the r[illegible] and convincterpretation, never overacting, [illegible]tion. The ing by suggestion rather than by a[illegible] part of Lieut. von Laufen is excelle[illegible] played by Alexander F. Frank.

Retail Merchants.

At a meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association held last night the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: B. Weil, president; C. R. Yates, first vice president; W. H Peck, second vice president; M. E. Parker, third vice president; C. F. Entwisle, treasurer; B. B. Smith, secretary; A. Bowie, sergeant-at-arms; J. Wolf, John D. Matter, J. E. Merchant, F. C. Matthews and James McCuen, trustees. It was decided to give a banquet at the first meeting in January, at which time the new officers will be installed.

Letter From Mr. Rixey.

Liberty, N. Y., Dec. 3. 1906.

My Dear Sir—Let me first thank "The Gazette" and all the other democratic newspapers of the District for their effective work in the campaign, and through them the people of the 8th District who gave me the unprecidented majority in the election just held. I appreciate their generous support more than I can tell and hope that I can repay them by faithful and efficient service.

I returned from Colorado, Nov. 13th. improved—well, the doctors pronounce as to my lungs. My larynx, however, is still giving me serious concern, and I am at the "Loomis Sanitorium where the treatment consists almost entirely in living and sleeping out of doors. I am assured it will probably result in a cure. I regret exceedingly that I will be unable to attend this short session of Congress, but I will have a general pair on all political question, and my efficient secretary, Mr. J. Geo. Hiden, who has been with me since I have represented the District, will have an office in Washington and will attend to all the department business. In this way I hope the inconveniences caused by my absence will be reduced to a minimum.

Very truly yours,
JNO. F. RIXEY.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

DANGER OF ANARCHY,

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND has made a statement in elaboration of his views on the dangers of anarchy, a subject on which he touched, awakening wide interest, in his address at the reunion of the Army of the Tennessee at Council Bluffs. Among other things the Archbishop says:

The very profuseness of the prosperity of the United States begets peril, unless the American people can be taught to use these favors well and wisely. * * * * The wild anarchist, the would-be-assassin are the public enemies of society, whom to tolarate is to tolerate open sedition. An enemy, too, of public order is the workman who, refusing his own labor, deters by violence a brother workman from offering his labor as is, even in a greater degree, the strong and the powerful who override the law of the land on carrying out the schemes of their ambition. * * * The gravest responsibility rests on all to move slowly, to think wisely, to avoid all perils of leaps into the dark. * * * To the poor man, to the wage earner, I should indeed preach the doctrine of ambition and energy. Let everyone aim to secure a competency for himself and his family. Let everyone strive to rise; it is his right; it is his duty. But all this he must do by means that are fair and just without ever infringing on the rights of others, be they his fellow-laborers or those whom he and they call the rich of the land. To the rich and the more fortunate I should preach unceasingly the doctrines of justice and charity. * * * * Unreasonable querulousness among the poor, senseless extravagance among the rich are equally to be reprehended, and if one is to be reprehended more severely than the other, it is the senseless extravagance of the rich. It is a crime against humanity it is madness itself to squander money in mere reckless ostentation.

Citizens' Industrial Association

The convention of the Citizens' Industrial Association of America opened in Chicago yesterday, and is scheduled to last through two days.

Mayor Dunne yesterday delivered an address of welcome to the delegates and an address was delivered by William Collison, general secretary of the National Free Labor Association of Great Britain. The greater part of the day was consumed in listening to the reports of officers.

President Post in his report characterized the American Federation of Labor as the greatest trust in the world." He declared the industrial association was formed to defend communities and citizens from "the destructive acts of both capital and labor." He said: "In the late election, where the labor trust was avowedly arrayed against the common people in an effort to retire congressmen who voted contary to the dictates of the trust, the discovery was made that the great mass of citizens are not members of the labor trust or of any other trust.
